

KS3 Speaking and Listening Marking Criteria

Pass	Merit	Distinction
Occasionally makes eye contact with audience but relies heavily on script.	Uses voice and actions to present character and emotion.	Fully conforms to their chosen role in the reading.
Expresses straightforward ideas, feeling and information.	Expresses challenging ideas, feeling and information. Uses a range of vocabulary.	Expresses sophisticated ideas, feeling and information. Accurately uses a wide and elevated range of vocabulary.
Makes an attempt to organise and structure their presentation.	Organises and structures their presentation in a clear way.	Organises and structures their presentation in an effective way which engages the audience.
Makes an attempt to entertain the audience.	Achieves the purpose of the reading by entertaining the audience.	Achieves the purpose of the reading by consistently entertaining the audience.