

Edgbarrow School

YEAR 10: Philosophy, Ethics and Religion

KS4 Proficient

Curriculum Intent

In Year 10 students study the WJEC Eduqas Religious Studies course which is aimed at honing their critical thinking and communication skills. They examine core Christian beliefs, teachings and practices from the perspective of a number of denominations and critically assess religious and secular views in response to questions concerning Human Rights and Relationships. Students will continue to develop tolerance, respect for others, as well as a sense of belonging within a diverse British society in order for them to identify and develop their own beliefs.

Topic	Time of Year	Assessment	Homework
Human Rights	Autumn Term	End of Topic Assessment on Human Rights using a GCSE past exam paper.	This is set at the discretion of the teacher in extension of classroom learning and principally takes the form of revision or exam practice.
Christian Beliefs
Christian Beliefs and Practices	Spring Term	End of Topic Assessments on Christian Beliefs and Practices using a GCSE past exam paper.
Relationships	Summer Term	End of Topic Assessment on Relationships using a GCSE past exam paper.
